

There should be a strengthening rather than a reduction in the Do Not Call Act. As a private citizen, I should be able to have the right to indicate that I do not wish to be bothered by solicitations. As I have the right to keep the television off, if I find a show offensive I should be able to keep someone from interrupting my time. Please continue to support this action and in fact, it should be expanded.